Dear Dr. Godson:

I take pleasure in inviting you to address "Soviet Active Measures and Disinformation" in the first running of "The Soviet Intelligence Services," a block of instruction in the program of the Agency's Soviet Realities Institute. We have scheduled you from 1:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. on 8 December 1986, at the Headquarters Building in Langley, Virginia.

This block is one of a series on specialized disciplines and issues in a program of instruction on the Soviet Union sponsored by the Institute. The audience will be about thirty professional officers from all parts of the Agency who work primarily on the Soviet Union, but who are not necessarily familiar with the organization and operation of the Soviet intelligence services.

We will contact you one week before your session to make parking and any other logistical arrangements. If you have questions, please call [redacted] of our Soviet Realities Institute [redacted]

Sincerely,
